

2023 HMA Membership Benefits & Special Offer

The members of HMA are the biggest and most important reasons why HMA exists. As a volunteer based, non-profit organisation, HMA relies on membership fees and donations to provide informative and practical self-help resources for the D/deaf and hard of hearing people, their families, and friends and advocate for them wherever we can.

2023 Membership benefits include:

- You will receive all four issues of “Hearing Matters” - our quarterly journal, each year
- Access to “exclusive members only” resources from the HMA website
- Access to volunteers who share their lived experience of hearing loss with individuals or small groups
- Access to support groups, e.g., Café & Chat sessions and Peer Support Open Days re managing hearing loss
- Opportunity to take/give practical advice and support from/to other members
- Opportunity to borrow resources from the HMA library
- Have a say in how HMA operates by voting at special and annual general meetings
- Eligibility to be nominated for the HMA committee
- Information about opportunities to participate in hearing research programs
- Supporting HMA to advocate for the D/deaf and hard of hearing community
- Be invited to attend the 2023 HMA End-of-Year Lunch & Game Event
- Be part of a community organisation of like-minded people

2023 HMA Membership Period & Fees:
